How were the costs to move the transformer to the West Townsend location handled -- capitalized or booked to O&M?

Response:

The moving expenses for the transformer from Princeton Road Substation to the West Townsend Substation were capitalized. A contractor, Hallanore Corp, was hired to relocate the transformer from Princeton Road Substation to the West Townsend Substation. The total invoice cost of $21,250 was split half to the removal of the transformer and half to the installation of the transformer.
